1. Some days ago, Lieutenant Colonel Slavin paid a visit to Karl Mossner, the former owner of the LDP newspaper Morgen. Mossner lives in the West Sector of Berlin. Mossner has a claim of East Marks 1,500,000 against the DLR. Recently, he presented this claim in writing to Soviet Political Advisor V.S. Semanov. This letter was presented to Semanov by Slavin. Semanov told Slavin that Mossner had presented the facts correctly.
2. During his visit, Slavin made the following statement to Mossner: "You were the head when you established Morgen, and you presented a clear policy in the paper. You were the last to leave. What has since been presented in Morgen can no longer be regarded as a political line. Be patient another three months, and you will again head the direction of Morgen."
